

Letter from Dallie B. Gordon, Hillsboro, Georgia to Elaine Delott, 280 River Road Winthrop, Massachusetts

Hillsboro Ga
Sept 20 1954

Dear Sweet

I rec[eived] your Sweet letter along time ago and how glad I was to here [sic] from you and no (sic) that you all is well. I was sorry that I was so long write you back I lost your letter and did not has address to write you But then another day I fin[d] your letter how glad I was to fin[d] it So I hope when this letter reach your love hand I do hope it will fine you injoy your happy life to hope that you love me as [p. 2]

I do you all if I did not no you I love just like I do the other children please tell me about all the children I guess the old girl is marriage tell all to write me for I just want to see you all So bad if your all is white Child I am you all Black Ma. Write and tell me about how your grandma and all is get along is they still stay in Sparta Ga yet I think you is so sweet are you to write me and don't no me but I no you is sweet for all the Delott is so sweet so please don't farget [sic] the picture and if you can please send all you all pictures and write me a long letter and I no I enjoy read a letter from one I always love you all

[p. 3]

A Cook Dallie B. Gordon