Dear Elayne:

This is to confirm in writing the action of the Radcliffe administration which I reported to you orally.

In our opinion the behavior leading to your arrest was reprehensible, showed poor judgment and certainly did not reflect creditably on you, your family or the College. We have seriously considered requiring you to withdraw from the College, but in view of the recommendations of the court and our evidence of your growing sense of responsibility we have chosen to put you on probation until the end of this academic year. You will be required to be in touch with Dean Solomon on a regular basis which she will establish and will take no overnight leaves without the written permission of Dean Solomon. It is our understanding that you will be living in Henry House. We ask that you sign in six nights a week by 11:30 and not later than 1:00 o'clock on the seventh night unless you have permission from Dean Solomon.

I wish to make it quite clear that if the terms of your probation are broken you may be asked to leave the College immediately and that any misrepresentation of the seriousness with which we view your past conduct or other wilful expression of attitudes that we believe harmful to the Radcliffe community will also be reason for severance. If you do not feel you can or wish to comply with these conditions I recommend that you voluntarily withdraw from the College for at least a semester.

Our decision to permit you to continue your education is of course an expression of our sincere faith in your academic capabilities and your integrity and developing concern for others.

Sincerely yours,

Mrs. Mary I. Bunting
