

dear sister,
i am sending the first letter because it is depressing and even though i no longer feel that way, it's kind of a testimony of the ups and downs i have, and we all do. i myself am much more settled here now. in the first place i have a better project, my own idea, and am working it out. it is less research and more contact with people, training them to do things, etc. although i perhaps will never regret having committed to memory the poverty bill and the social security act, plus mda, i still am glad to not have to spend too much time devising new bills, and working like a sneaky lawyer discovering weak points and potential pressure points.

i am of course very upset about the thought of ernest being really sick. i have a whole complete picture of him in my mind, and am happiest of all because you like him, and i think this is the nicest part of a all. said him my hello.

nothing too much else to report. ~~_____~~
